JAPAN'S STRONG WARNING TO AMERICA: FORMATION OF NEW BODY TO BRING NATION THROUGH EMERGENCY

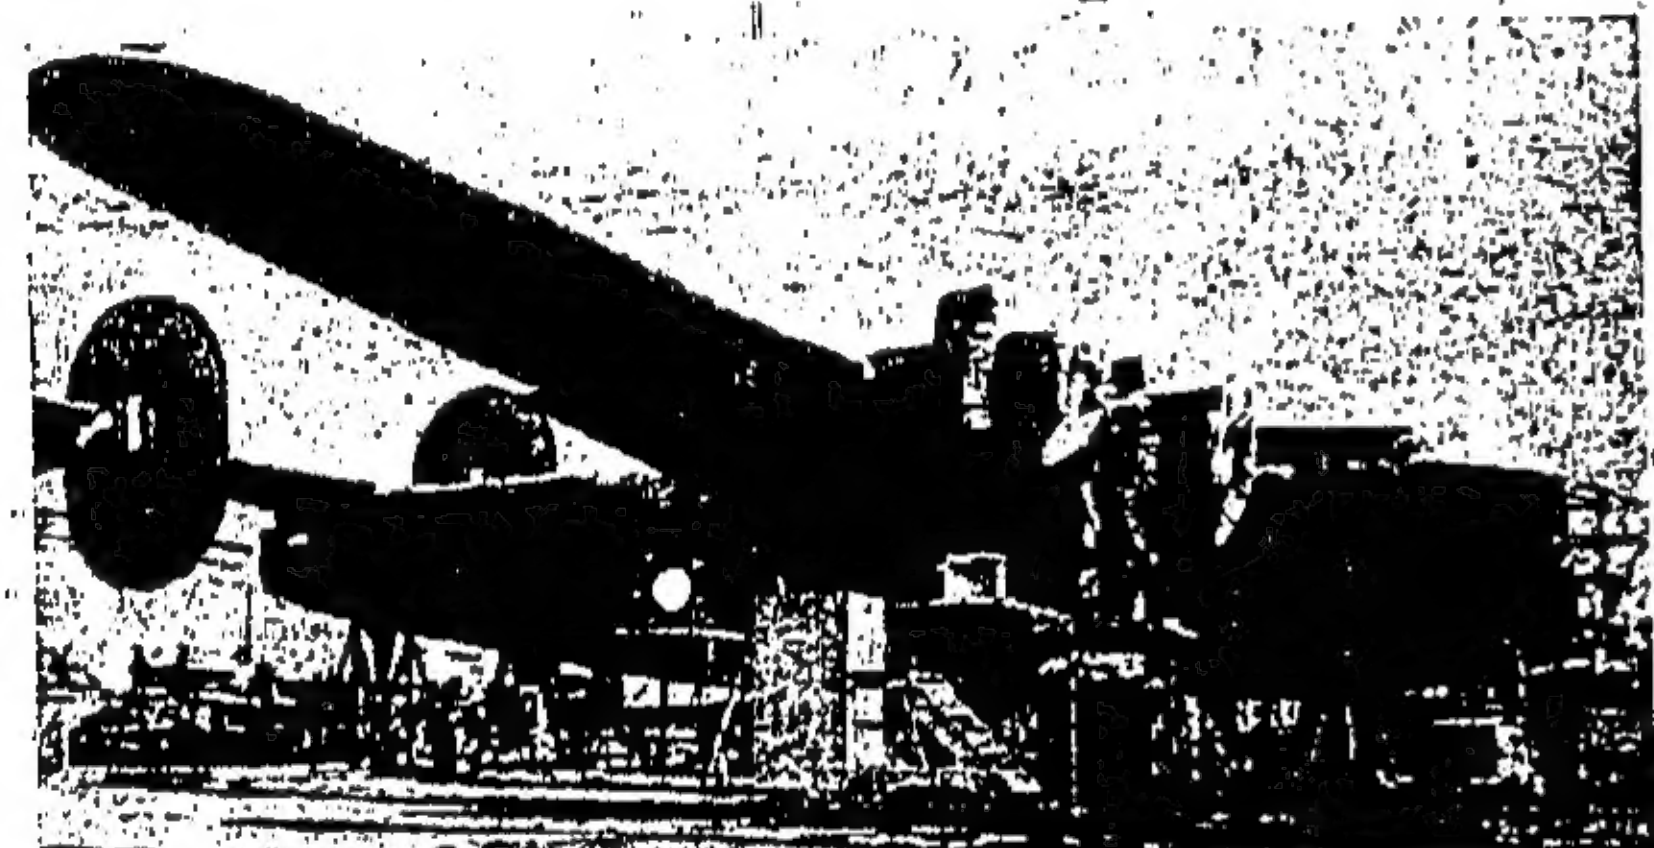

Konoye Reminded Time Has Come To Prepare For Worst

TOKYO, FEB. 12 (REUTERS)—A STRONG WARNING WAS SOUNDED TODAY BY THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION AGAINST "ARROGANT ATTEMPTS TO INTERFERE WITH JAPAN'S NATIONAL POLICIES AND VIOLATE JAPAN'S LIVING SPACE BY THE UNITED STATES WHICH HAS BEEN VIGILANTLY WATCHING AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THIS PURPOSE, COUNTING ON JAPAN'S EXHAUSTION," STATES A JAPANESE REPORT.

The National Association was formed this afternoon by 1,000 representatives from various groups to rally in an effort to launch a nationwide drive to bring the nation through the emergency period.

In the past 20 years, Japan has pursued a policy of reconciliation towards the United States but the latter returned Japan's reconciliation concession with acts of increasing hostility, says a manifesto, which urges the nation to prepare for the worst eventuality, otherwise a lasting peace in East Asia cannot be realised.

SYSTEMATIC MURDER OF DEFECTIVES

The systematic murder of mental defectives by the Gestapo in Germany was revealed by an American radio commentator who has just returned to New York from Berlin, states a London message.

He reported that mental defectives were being executed by the tens of thousands. The facts were only known to Hitler and a few men at the top and the relatives of the victims who are told to collect the ashes.

The Nazis are afraid of reactions of the people if their methods become generally known.—(Special)

Franco-Duce Meeting

NO INKLING OF CONVERSATION

There is no inkling in the Madrid newspapers of what may be the conversation between Gen. Franco and Signor Mussolini and there is nothing to indicate that any big development may be expected, states a London message, which adds that it is assumed that London that Franco will display the usual caution he has shown in dealing with the Axis Powers.

It seems fairly clear that the initiative for the meeting came from Il Duce.

Admiral Darian is also reported to be going to the Riviera.—(Special)

GRIM AMUSEMENT

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuters)—"Some grim amusement will be felt at the latest action of the Japanese Government in the introduction of a Bill, empowering the Navy to direct all shipping in war-time," says the DAILY TELEGRAPH.

"Japan has been at war with China under a series of transient and embarrassed Governments so long that it is hardly credible the Navy lacks any war-time powers which the Diet can confer.

"The measure would seem to be one more formulation of the familiar threats of Mr. Matsuoaka to British and American interests. Mr. Matsuoaka has sometimes used 'different voice and protested that Japan wants no new war for the sake of her aspirations.

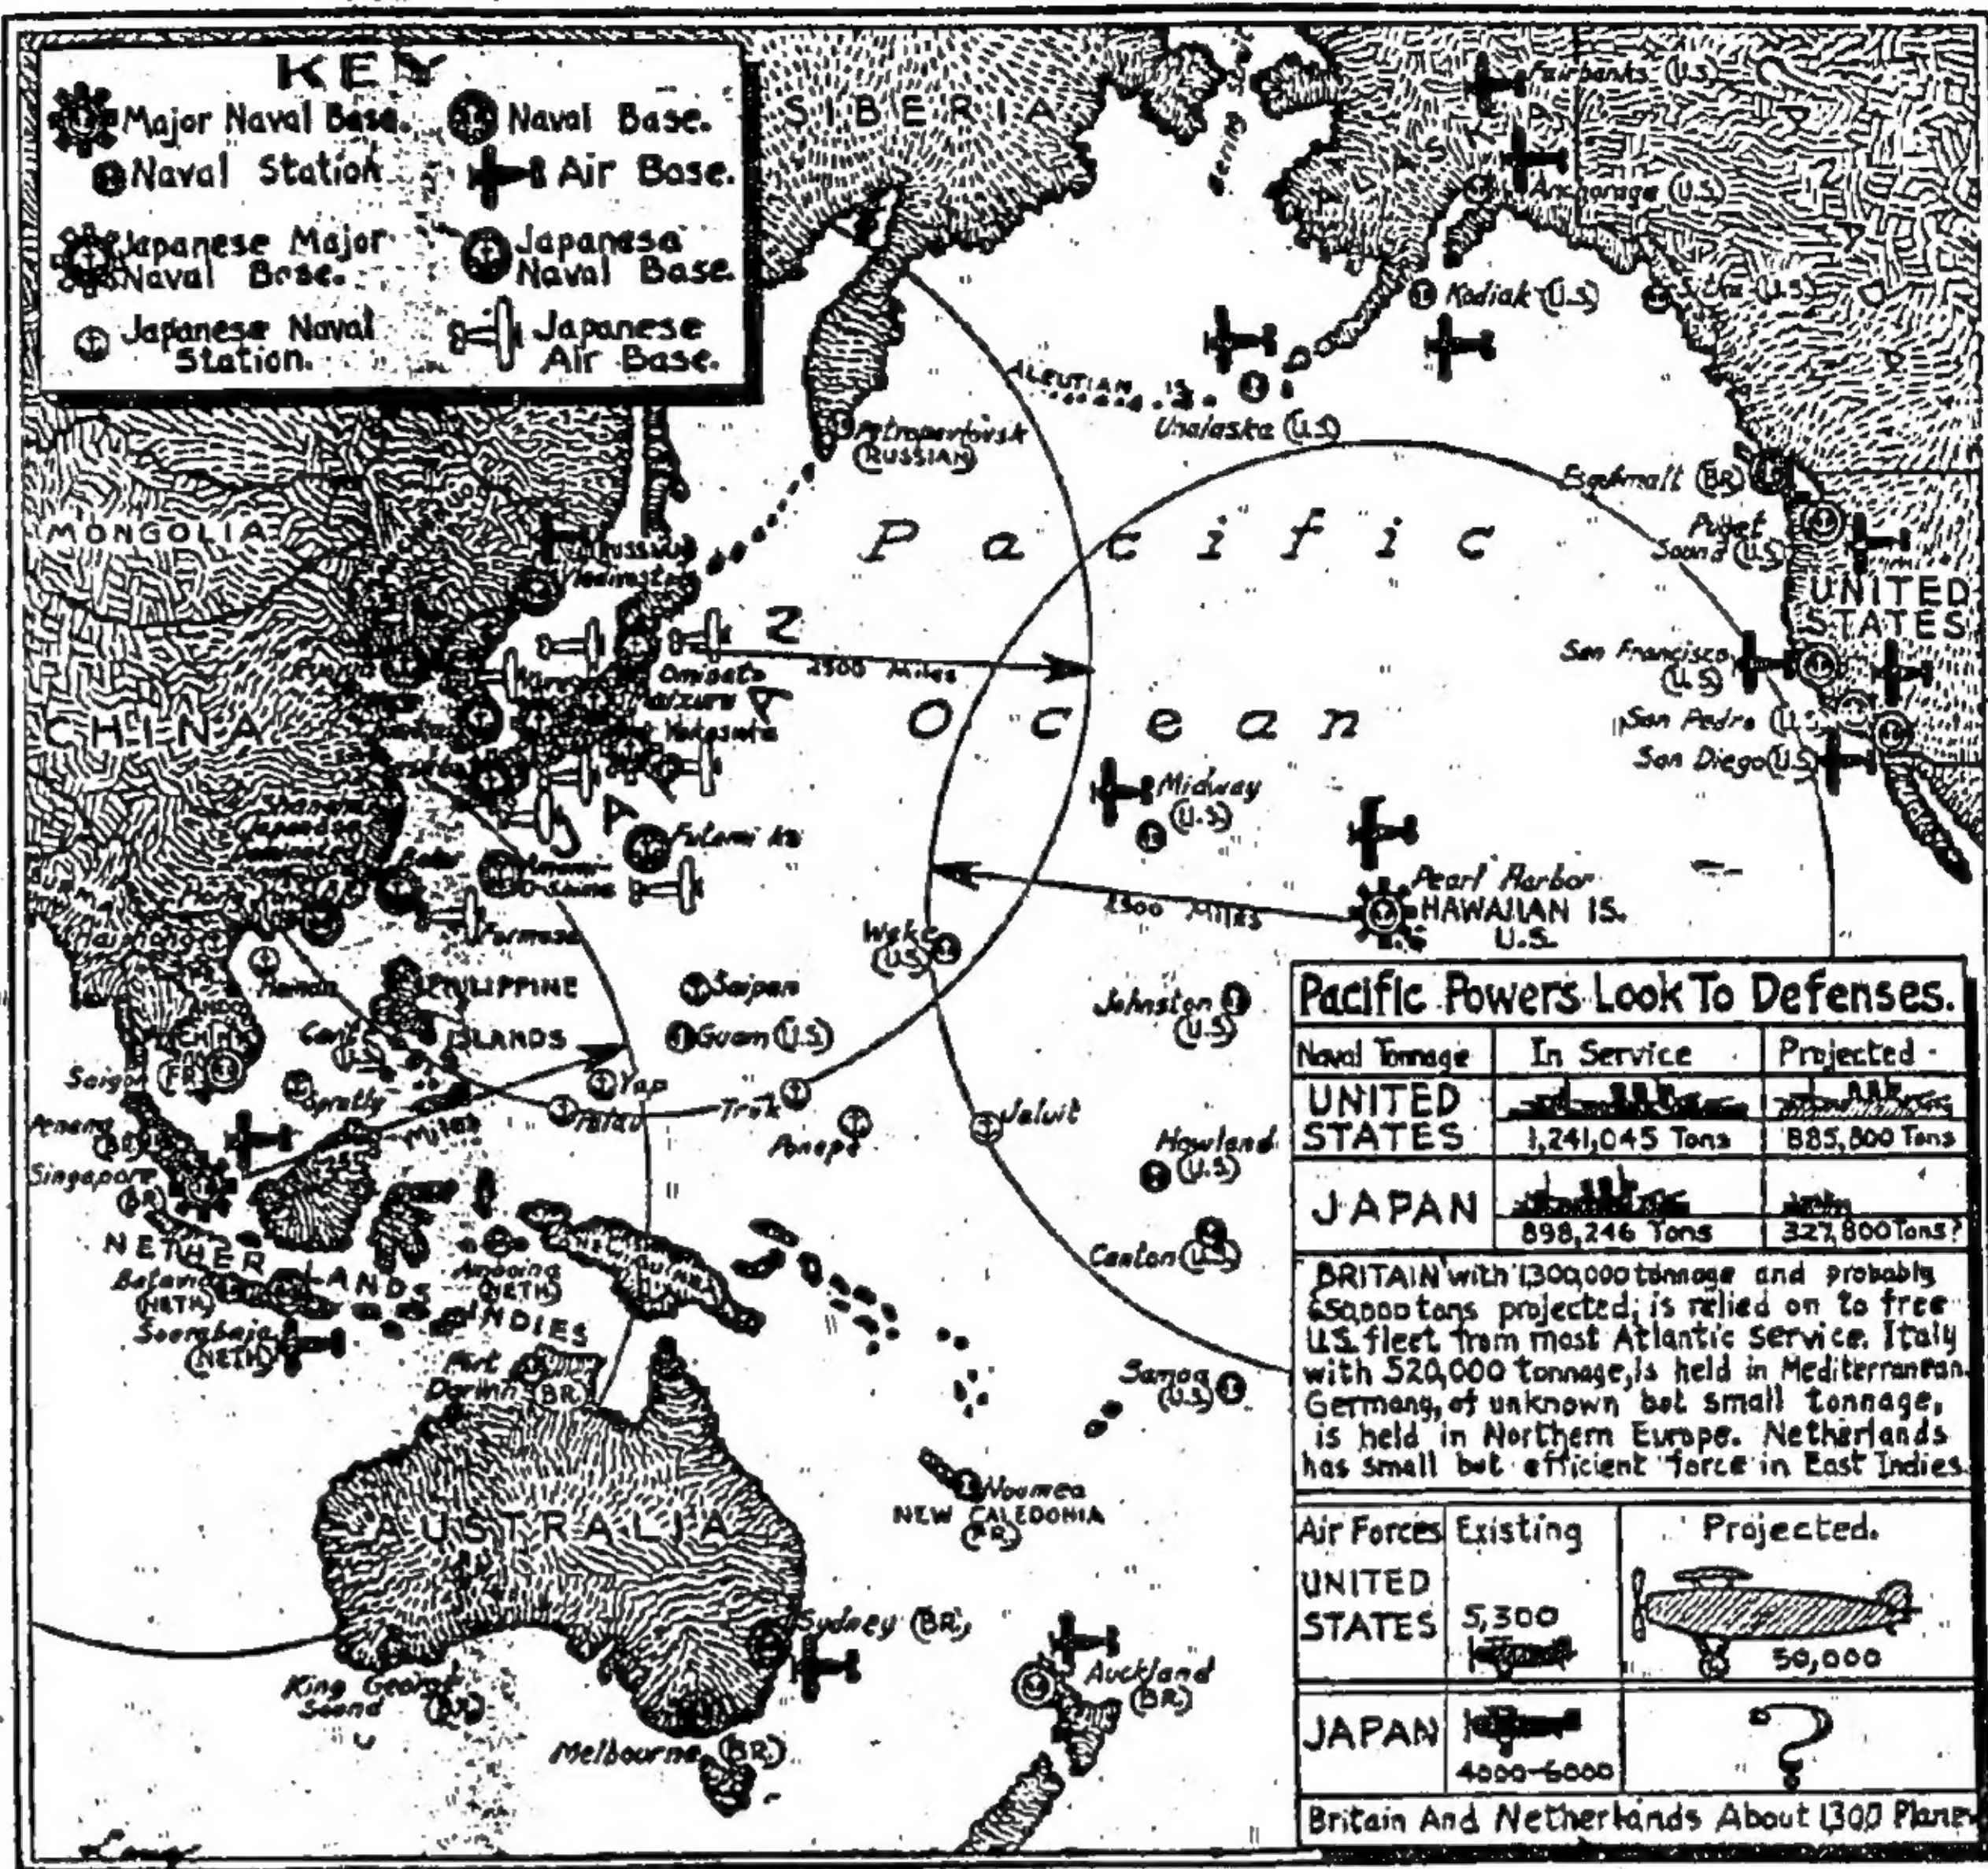

"The voice of truculence, which is a close imitation of Hitler's, is required from him by the militarist faction. The other voice confesses the justice of opposition of a large number of Japanese people to a quarrel with America and the British Commonwealth.

CHERISHED HOPE

"It is assuredly one of Herr Hitler's most cherished hopes that he would be able to attempt and cheat Japan into a war with the British Empire and the United States.

"By Nazi calculations, such a conflict would give him means to a decisive victory in Europe through the division of our forces and diversion of American munitions from us to the Pacific front, but we need feel no alarm at the

WAVELL AND CATROUX PAY TRIBUTE TO THE GREEKS

Courageous Resistance Has Effect On Balkans

TRIBUTES TO THE GREEK RESISTANCE against the Italians in Albania have been paid by GENERAL SIR ARCHIBALD WAVELL and GENERAL CATROUX, states a London message.

Gen. Wavell said, "Our valiant Greek allies were the first to deal the Italians a terrible blow."

Gen. Catroux said that Mussolini would have never attempted to invade Greece if he thought he would meet such resistance. The courage of the Greeks has had an effect on the Balkans and the French colonies.

TEXT OF BRITISH NOTE TO RUMANIA

The Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, gave the House of Commons yesterday THE TEXT OF THE NOTE which was written on his instructions by Sir Reginald Hoare, the British Minister in Bucharest, TO THE RUMANIAN GOVERNMENT, states a London message.

The Note, addressed to General Antonescu, the Prime Minister, began, by saying, "It has become evident that this country's Government which you have directed for six months has become dependent on Germany. Numerous facts and statements made by yourself confirm this.

"Some months ago you informed me that a small number of German troops were arriving in Rumania to instruct the Rumanian Army in modern warfare and that the necessary equipment for this purpose was arriving from Germany.

"In fact, however, Germany was building up an expeditionary force in Rumania and used the country as a military base without protest from Rumania."

These were the reasons, stated Mr. Eden, why His Majesty's Government has decided to withdraw the British Minister and Consular staff from the country.—(Special)

The Bastion Upon Which Australia Depends

THE SYDNEY MORNING HERALD yesterday, in a leading article, discussed the wider questions of Australia's defence and preparedness in arms and equipment in relation to the visit to that country of the British Commander-in-Chief of the Far East, Air Chief Marshal SIR ROBERT BROOKE-POPHAM, states a message from Sydney.

The paper stated that Singapore was the bastion upon which Australia depended and therefore Sir Robert's visit was of special significance. Reference was also made to the presence of Australian troops and airmen round the Singapore fortress, which thus made the force there a formidable one.

ON GUARD

MR. J. CURTIN the Labour Leader, emphasised when he addressed the Australian Worker's Union that Singapore stood guard to approaches to Australia and that Australia's strategy would remain the same.

Mr. Curtin also announced that two members of his party had been appointed to assist the Government in special work relating to the conduct of the war.

$2 Million Infectious Diseases Hospital For Kowloon Mooted

By Our Staff Reporter

Hongkong will have, by the end of 1942 or the beginning of 1943, one of the most UP-TO-DATE and BEST EQUIPPED INFECTIOUS DISEASES HOSPITAL in the Far East, if the plans of the Hon. Director of Medical Services, Dr. P. S. Selwyn-Clarke, materialise. It was learned from reliable sources yesterday.

Levelling of the 420,000 square foot site, adjoining the present Kowloon Hospital in Argyle Street, has already started.

According to our informant, the plans called for the construction of a six-storeyed hospital building, quarters for medical officers, sisters and nurses, a laundry at the back of the hospital, a mortuary (to replace the present one at the end of the slope leading to the Kowloon Hospital), and a gatehouse.

The hospital will have accom-

WENDELL WILLKIE TO VISIT AUSTRALIA

The suggestion that an invitation should be extended to MR. WENDELL WILLKIE, the Republican leader, who has just returned to the United States, to visit Australia was warmly welcomed by the acting Prime Minister of Australia at a meeting of the War Cabinet there yesterday, states a message from Sydney.

The War Cabinet met to deal with wider questions of Empire defence and before the meeting, the acting Prime Minister was asked to comment on a newspaper suggestion that Mr. Willkie should be asked to visit Australia.

ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE

Mr. A. W. Fadden, the acting Premier, approved of the suggestion. He said, "Nothing but good can result from such a visit, as nothing but good will result from his recent visit to England.

"Mr. Willkie should be able to study the situation in Australia first hand and to inform the American people what he thought of it. We want America to know what the exact position here is and we want all the advice and assistance we can get."

The suggestion for this visit was made by the SYDNEY SUN, which declared that Mr. Willkie went to Australia he would find the people there as much akin to the people of his country as those in Great Britain.

OWN EFFORTS

"We must look to our own efforts to defend ourselves," continued the paper. "The strengthening of Singapore and the arming of the Netherlands East Indies, which we regard as the outposts of the defence of New Zealand and the colonies of the South Pacific, are of deep interest to the United States, whose interests as well as those of Australia would be well served by such a visit."—(Special)

MR. WILLKIE AT WHITE HOUSE

Mr. Wendell Willkie saw President Roosevelt at the White House on Tuesday night, states a London message.

EXPLOSIVE SOFTBALL AT K.F.C. ON SUNDAY: CANUCKETTES DOWN WAHOOS BY 8-6

V.R.C. Overwhelm R. Scots To Earn A Play-Off With Chung Hwa For Trophy

THE CANUCKETTES PUT PAID TO THE PENNANT HOPES OF THE WAHOOS ON SUNDAY last, when they earned an 8-6 decision in an explosive clash that was marked by heated outbursts against umpiring decisions on several occasions.

The Wahoos were first to bat and were set down in short order during the first three frames. The Canuckettes were also unable to score during the first two but staged a five run uprising in their half of the third.

Starting off, Jay Wong was given a life on Irene Castilho's fumble but was nailed at second on an attempted steal. Vivian Louie drew a pass and Mary Ng followed by beating out a bunt. Mabel Bunn was safe when Yvonne Yolle muffed a roller and the sacks were loaded for Incident No. 1, as Rene Yuen came to bat and slashed a drive along the first-base foul line that the plate umpire declared foul before the ball had landed. When it did come to earth the base-umpire called fair ball and all of the runners crossed the pan.

Protests from the Wahoo bench induced the plate umpire to reverse the base-umpire's decision, eye-witnesses confirm that the ball undoubtedly landed fair, and the runners were sent back and Rene Yuen came to bat again. This time a single to left scored Louie and Ng, after which Mabel Bunn tallied on Alice Ma's sacrifice fly.

Ullian Khoo hoisted a homer to right, driving in Rene Yuen ahead of her, so the point in dispute actually made no difference whatever.

SIX-RUN LEAD

The Wahoos tallied once in the fourth when Irene Castilho reached first on Ullian Khoo's miff, stole second and third and scored on Jackie Anderson's infield out. After the Wahoos had registered another tally in the fifth, the Maple Leafs garnered three tallies through Ullian Khoo, Rose Louise and Vivian Louise to take a six-run lead in the last of the sixth.

Coming up for the last time the Wahoos started off with Eliza Anderson pinch hitting for Bunny Abbas, only to fall as Mary blazed three good ones across the plate. Coco Yolle was given a walk, pilfered second, took third on a passed ball and strolled home on a wild pitch. Yvonne Yolle also walked and stole second, and Irene Castilho binged.

ANOTHER ARGUMENT

Jackie Anderson blasted a round-tripper to centre field but unfortunately sustained an arm injury in sliding for home. Therese Noronha was safe when Yuen failed to hold Khoo's peg and advanced on another passed ball.

Then came another argument when Alda Castro lifted a foul fly between the plate and third, and Mary Ng snared the ball only to drop it when she crashed into the wooden railing that runs around the ground. This time the umpire's decision stuck and Jean Yolle ended the game when she hoisted a fly to Jay Wong at right-field.

EASY DECISION

The Wildcats kept pace with the Canuckettes when they took an easy 20-2 decision against the Little Flower Club aggregation which could not connect with a single hit off the medium-paced deliveries of Thelma Collaco.

Gloria Mar registered the only circuit clout of the game while Cynthia "Sallor" Motta was good for a rousing two-bagger. N. Sequeira and Inez Soares tallied the Florinhas only markers with the assistance of bobbles by Thelma Collaco and Margaret Young.

CRARY FLUSTERS INDIANS

The Chinese Baseballers, turning out short-handed once again, proved to be no match for the Indians whose defensive work in the pinches gave them a comparatively easy victory after their attack had bogged down against the speedy hurling of Denham Crary.

Each squad was good for only four hits but, although the losers committed 3 miscues to the winners, Crary conceded eight free passes that went a long way in helping the Indians to tally 6 times while the Chinese outfit were garnering 2. Kassa Nazarin was the only batter in the game to connect twice.

SAINTS TOO GOOD

The Filipinos went through the motions against St. Joseph's to finally lose by 3 tallies to 20. The latter, after scoring two in the first and 13 in the second, took things easy and gave both Charlie Manson and Hal Wing Lee a turn on the mound.

Included in the winners' 10 safeties were homers by Hank All and Dave Leonard and doubles by Stan Leonard, All, Arturo Ozoio and George Souza.

ENTERTAINING TUSSELE

Most entertaining struggle of the day was the Mohawks-Cyclones clash which resulted in a 7-3 victory for the Tribesmen. The game was fairly even but extra-base hits by Johnny Schaberg, Fitch, Lou Leight and Hank Sperry turned the tide in favour of the Wagoners whose snap in the field is still a source of wonderment to the fans.

The Cyclones battled gamely behind the hurling of Pinky Pineda who surprised with an excellent batting display which, however, was outshone by Bakar's perfect 3-in-3. Left-fielder K. Rounjahn battled for 2-in-3 and brought off the fielding gem of the game when he came in fast to make a shoe-string catch of Frank Crews' hoist to centre in the fourth frame.

Johnny Schaberg's 3-in-4, including a triple and a double, topped the Mohawks' batting performers while Pete Fitch was a close second with 2-in-3.

SCOTS OVERWHELMED

In the Junior loop, Liga Portuguesa produced good stickwork to take South China by 13 markers to 9, after which the Victoria Recreation Club registered an easy 23-4 victory over the Royal Scots to earn a play-off against Chung Hwa for the Limjap Trophy.

Wayfong maintained their march to the Hong pennant with a runaway 16-2 triumph over the Greensports for whom Grover hurried and lost cigars for the several homers clouted off his slow fire-ball.

ALL-STAR U.S. BASKETBALLERS TO PLAY HERE

Charity To Benefit From Exhibition

The 20th Century Fox Film basketball team, which passed through Hongkong two weeks ago en route to the Philippine Islands, are to give an exhibition game in the Colony against a local all-star aggregation, upon their return, in aid of charity.
Arrangements have already been started to stage the exhibition either at Hongkong University's spacious gymnasium, or the Chinese Y.M.C.A. They are due to arrive about Feb. 21, remaining overnight. This American all-star hoop quintette, which won the Pacific Coast A.A.U. championship last year is made up of former college stars, most of whom were selected on all-conference teams during their collegiate "rah, rah, rah" days.

SCIENTIFIC GAME

Basketball, as it is played during the present day, is a highly scientific game—the old individual dribbling method being replaced by modern well-timed, streamlined screening plays. These Californian giants all tower over the six foot mark and are considered masters in the art of using deceptive screening plays.
Arrangements are being made to have some of these cage stars give short talks on the intricacies of basketball on the afternoon of their arrival in Hongkong to local basketball enthusiasts.

F.A. COUNCIL MEETING

Discussion Over Ground For Senior Shield Match

GESTURE TO LEE TIN-SANG: VISIT OF BURMAH CHINESE TEAM

It was revealed at the monthly meeting of the Council of the Hongkong Football Association held yesterday evening that the BURMAH CHINESE A. A. soccer eleven will be arriving in the Colony on April 10.

Mr. Wong Ka-tsun presided supported by Mr. C. A. Goldenberg (Secretary) and Mr. L. F. de Souza (Asst. Sec.).

Others present at the meeting were Messrs. W. E. Hollands, W. J. Brown, C. Gulngam, H. K. Lee, J. Skinner, J. MacKellvie, Mok Hing, R. M. Omar, W. Hamming Chen, T. G. Stokes, Capt. A. W. F. Peal, P. O. Brown and Lieut. H. S. Cooper.

Mr. Lee objected to having the Sing Tao shield game being played at Caroline Hill on the ground that the South China St. Joseph's Club had too many members who entered the ground free.

After lengthy discussion, Mr. Chen put it to the Council that South China would have no objection in not allowing its members to enter a game between two other clubs if other clubs, possessing grounds, would also give a similar undertaking.

Arising out of this, a proposition was put to the meeting that in the case of a club not in possession of a ground and who have informed the Association previously of taking a certain ground as their home ground, members of the club that owned it should not be admitted to the game free. The motion was put to the vote but was defeated, and it was decided that the question be shelved for the present.

SOCCER REVIEW

SING TAO DROP VITAL POINT IN LEAGUE RACE

Continued Improvement Of Lapsley In Goal

BY "PILAT"

Owing to the Volunteer Camp there was a curtailed programme over the week-end, only three matches being played in the First Division, but in two of the games the result did not go as expected.

The first was the nasty jolt given SING TAO'S supporters by KOWLOON who forced the former to drop a most vital point—one which they cannot afford and which may well cost their championship hopes. There could be no doubt that the Mainlanders thoroughly deserved a share of the spoils.

The formidable Chinese attack staged one of their now quite customary lapses and had to pay heavily for it. As far as their defence was concerned this department played up to form. The forwards, however, cut a rather sorry picture. Not only was there a complete absence of their usual brilliant combinative movements but they were also erratic in their passing and shooting.

The ground, it must be stated, was slippery but their grand display, on a much worse pitch, in beating South China recently is still fresh in mind. Another contributing factor to their downfall was the vigour with which Kowloon's backs, Lamb and Whitfield, went about their work. Their forceful methods and first-time clearances must have a demoralising effect on the Chinese.

Lapsley behind them was very safe and his continued improvement this season has been a source of satisfaction to his manager and team supporters.

Sing Tao suffered yet another blow in this match when Soong Ling-sing, one of their mainstays in the defence, was given "marching orders" towards the end. His services will not be available this week against Middlesex and his will be a gap hard to fill.

BETTER INSIDE

Kowloon are in dire need of a good centre-forward. White, who led the attack, was not very successful and, obviously, is a better inside man. Lai Shu-wing and Fung King-cheung, in Sing Tao's front line, had an off-day and without their initiative the line on the whole, lacked polish.

Good Rugger At Valley

CLUB DRAW WITH MIDDLESEX

One of the best rugby games seen for a long time was witnessed at the Valley yesterday when CLUB "A" forced a last minute draw with MIDDLESEX in a friendly match.

The sound defence of both teams foiled the brilliant attempts of the forwards, and resulted in a point-less first half.

On resumption, Middlesex went all out for a touch-down, and Burrell, after a splendid run, scored a try which Berry failed to convert.

CLUB EQUALISE

Club did their utmost to equalise, and receiving the ball near the ten-yard line, Thomson levelled the score, Castleton falling in his kick.

Matthews, the Club's full-back, was outstanding, others being Grattan, Morgan, Thomson, Stoker, Castleton, and Godfrey.

For Middlesex, Thompson at back, Williams, Man, Hewitt, Modridge, Burrell, and Willoughby, caught the eye on numerous occasions.

MIDDLESEX: Thompson; Williams, Sturdy, Weedon, Baynes; Man, Modridge; Hewitt, Bayley, Wilson, Kilmcke, Wokeley, Burrell, Willoughby and Berry.

CLUB "A": Matthews; Grattan, Lavalle, Carruthers, Morgan; Bidwell, Thomson; Stoker, Castleton, Lee, Gairdner, Benn, Stout, Dalziel.

The European Y.M.C.A. water polo team will meet a team from the Middlesex Regiment in a friendly game at the "Y" pool tomorrow at 7.15 p.m.

NEW THREAT TO ADDIS ABABA

S.A. Troops 50 Miles
Inside Abyssinia

CAIRO, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—South African troops have penetrated 50 miles into Abyssinia.

Thus while the battle for Keren in Eritrea is still proceeding, a new threat to Addis Ababa is foreshadowed by the latest information reaching Cairo yesterday afternoon.

This deep penetration into enemy occupied territory has taken place east of Lake Rudolf and the South Africans are pressing on along the rift of the valley running north-eastwards to the Abyssinian capital and the Red Sea.

CAPTURE OF HOBOK

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—South African troops played a prominent part in the capture of Hobok on the South Abyssinian border, according to details of operations which have just reached London.

With a British force, the South Africans left Dukana and camped on the border. Later they pushed on through dense bush over a distance of 18 miles towards their objective.

The Brigadier, referring to this advance, said that he did not think that the history of motorised forces could show a similar feat considering the type of bush encountered.

Destroyer Commander Wins D.S.O.

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—The exploit of the British destroyer Kimberley in torpedoing the Italian destroyer, Francesco Nullo, in the Red Sea last October in an action which followed an enemy attack on a convoy is recalled by awards announced in the London Gazette.

These are: Distinguished Service Order to Lieutenant-Commander John Sherbrook Richardson; Distinguished Service Cross to Engineer Lieutenant-Commander Gordon Edward Sedgwick and Distinguished Service Medal to Chief Engineer Artificer William Henry Dallison, all of the destroyer Kimberley.

INDIAN RESIDENTS IN CEYLON

NEW DELHI, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Fundamental differences on the question of the status of Indians resident in Ceylon led to the failure of the Indo-Ceylon Exploratory Conference last November, explains a Raj communique.

Informal circles believe that the failure is not regarded by either side as final, but events in the near future make a fresh approach to reconciliation of the outstanding differences feasible.

400 M.P.H. AMERICAN FIGHTERS FOR BRITAIN

Offensive Power Of R.A.F. Augmented With Bombers

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—America's aircraft aid to Britain, a closely kept secret in 1940, can now be traced more clearly from the factories to R.A.F. aerodromes, writes Reuter's Air correspondent. "Journey's end" for the warplanes which came across by ship is a Ministry of Aircraft Production station, somewhere in England while fitters are speeding up assembly in bomb-proof sheds.

An official confirmed that the flow of these fighters and medium bombers, which have not the range to cross the Atlantic under their own power, once only a trickle, was now a steady stream. Fighter crates are of two sizes. One contains the fuselage, undercarriage and engine all in one piece—the other holds the wing assembly.

A 40-minute test flight proves the plane's worthiness and after an armament test it is ready for operational use.

Long-range bombers are ferried across the Atlantic by air and while the rate at which any of the aircraft from across the Atlantic is going into service is not revealed, it was recently reported from New York that 1,400 American bombers had been flown across without mishap.

CURTIS-WRIGHT FIGHTERS
Somewhere in England I have seen two famous Curtiss-Wright single-engine fighters—Tomahawk 1 or P40 and the Mohawk 1—shed of their wrappings and assembled. Many have been sent to the squadrons.

Equipped as six (multi) gun aircraft with plenty of kick, the faster of the two—the Tomahawk—has been credited in America with a speed of over 400 miles an hour. This is probably on the high side but in the first mock combat between American and British fighters which I witnessed, the Tomahawk was faster on the level than its rival, a Hawker Hurricane, which was the chief killer of Goering's Heinkels and Junkers in 1940. It also climbed more rapidly.

I have also inspected out in the open two first-rate American types of shore-based naval fighter aircraft. They were Grumman Martlet and the Brewster Buffalo. Possessing a high rate of climb and a good ceiling, they with others I have mentioned, will play a big part in the protection of Britain's shores this year.

FIGHTER-BOMBER

Another aircraft on view was the Douglas Boston 2, a fighter-bomber which an R.A.F. officer, who has flown it describes as "more manoeuvrable, lighter on the controls, faster and better on the climb" than the Bristol Blenheim Mark IV.

It resembles the British plane except that it has a tricycle undercarriage—the first R.A.F. plane to be so fitted. This was the only strictly offensive American plane at this unit but the types inspected are but few from a range of over 30 United States types, available to Britain which will prove of great value. In strengthening the R.A.F. front line at a critical stage of the war.

INDIAN TROOPS IN ERITREA

Italian Posts Taken
At Bayonet Point

CAIRO, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—As in the Western Desert, Indian troops—infantry, sappers and mechanised cavalry—are greatly distinguishing themselves in the operations in Eritrea where they were very much at home in terrain resembling that of the northwest frontier.

Scaling heights held by the Italians they have repeatedly captured positions at the point of the bayonet and immediately charged down the mountain side.

In one battle, that which resulted in the occupation of Barentu, Punjab, Garhwal, Baluch and frontier force regiments fought throughout the attack.

The actual seizing of Barentu was effected after a five-day battle fought by the Indian Brigade through the narrow gorge and a 10-day battle was fought along Alkota Barentu Road by another brigade.

RHODESIAN AIRMEN IN BRITAIN

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—A number of air force pilots and mechanics from Southern Rhodesia, who have been trained in that country, have now arrived in Britain.

It is understood that the new arrivals, together with the Rhodesians already in this country, will form the nucleus of the Rhodesian squadrons which are to be attached to the R.A.F.

GUN-FORGING PRESS FOR INDIA

NEW DELHI, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—The largest of its type in India when erected, a 200-ton gun-forging press has been received for a factory in India and several important items of plant required for the expansion of Ordnance factories have also arrived.

JOINT DEFENCE OF U.S., CANADA

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Complete plans now exist for the joint defence of the United States and Canada.

This was told to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee by Mayor La Guardia, Chairman of the American members of the United States-Canada Defence Board.

EXTENSIVE OPERATIONS BY R.A.F.

SUCCESSFUL RAIDS ON AIR BASES

CAIRO, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—The latest air communique from the Middle East Headquarters contains news of successful raids on Calato (Rhodes), Tepelini and Duki while in Italian East Africa, the South African air force continues to harass the enemy.

The communique states that during the full in North Africa, R.A.F. activity has been continued on other fronts. Heavy bombers attacked Calato on the island of Rhodes on Monday and dropped several tons of bombs on the aerodrome and dispersed aircraft around it.

Buildings and aircraft were seen on fire after the explosion of bombs and it is confirmed that ten aircraft were destroyed and others damaged.

TEPELINI BOMBED

In Albania, buildings at Tepelini and Duki were set on fire by bombs dropped by other R.A.F. bombers.

A large enemy bomber formation, escorted by 20 fighters attempted to attack Jannina yesterday. They were intercepted by a formation of British fighters which shot down two bombers and damaged several others.

It is now confirmed that as a result of the engagement in the Kelyre area, which was announced in a communique yesterday, three further Italian aircraft were destroyed.

EAST AFRICA

In Italian East Africa a motor transport yard near the station at Asmara was attacked by British bombers. Stores in the wood near Keren were also bombed and in the same area on the previous day, bombing attacks were made on the railway tracks.

In the Kalan area, native troop concentrations were attacked by a South African Air Force squadron, which made dive-bombing attacks on roads, bridges and a pontoon bridge at Dolo.

The squadron then visited Lugherrandi, where they destroyed hangars on the aerodrome.

From all operations, all aircraft returned safely.

DRAMATIC EVIDENCE IN HUNG HOM MURDER CASE

Mistress Of Rice Shop Had Twenty Stab Wounds

"As I stepped into the shop I found a body lying in a pool of blood. I was stunned and jumped back but a voice came behind me whispering, 'I dared to do what I have to do, why don't you dare to do your part?'"

This formed part of the dramatic evidence given at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday afternoon by WONG KING, who was alleged to have been present shortly after the murder of HO SAU-TSAN, widow, mistress of a rice shop at No. 54, Wuhu Street, on the morning of Oct. 25, 1940.

A man, LO HING, 28, was arrested and was charged before Mr. E. Himsforth with murder.

Mr. J. P. Murphy, Assistant Crown Solicitor, said that the body of the deceased, who was the mistress of the Chau Foon rice shop, No. 54, Wuhu Street, was found lying on the ground, face downward in a pool of blood about 6 a.m.

Altogether there were 20 stab wounds on the body.

Continuing, Mr. Murphy said that the deceased had two nieces living on the rooftop of the shop and she was last seen by a fook of the shop, Li Yin-wai, who remained to do the accounts until 10.30 p.m. on Oct. 24.

A butcher's knife was found stuck in a sack of rice and also a bunch of keys. The drawers of the counter had been forced open and apparently nothing was stolen.

REVENGE ALLEGED

The accused was arrested outside of No. 225, Hollywood Road, on Jan. 20 at 12.30 p.m. and the Crown alleged that accused admitted that he had taken revenge on the deceased by whom he had been employed.

Giving evidence, Wong King said that about 20 days before the tragedy, defendant met him, Lo Lun and Lo Ping-tong. Accused was alleged to have suggested that they could rob the deceased.

They again met at the market in Waterloo Road and later and the accused was alleged to have told witness that they had to wait for a few days before they went to rob as he had to resign his position first.

The party of four went to the address at Hung Hom on Oct. 25. On their arrival they found the occupants still awake and the plan was delayed.

On the following evening, the party, with the exception of Lo Ping-tong again met in front of the Po King Theatre about 11 p.m. The accused was alleged to have carried a knife similar to the one found in the rice sack.

Arriving at the address the accused, it was alleged, told Lo Lun to keep watch while he and Wong went to the back of the house. The accused climbed over the back wall with the help of a witness, who was instructed to wait for him outside.

PUSHED FROM BACK

Defendant went into the premises for over 30 minutes and came out. He took Wong into the house through the front door. As soon as the witness stepped in he saw a body lying in a pool of blood. He was frightened and stepped back. But accused was alleged to have pushed him from the back and instructed him to take out the keys from the body.

As witness hesitated, accused was alleged to have urged him, saying, "I dared to do what I have to do, why don't you dare to do your part?" The witness unfastened the girdle and took out the bunch of keys. He opened the drawers of the counter but failed to find anything. He alleged that defendant urged him to open a safe nearby, but he was so afraid that he refused to do so.

Wong tip-toed to the back of the premises with the accused following. They both went into the kitchen and washed the blood from their feet and then left.

In the street, witness asked defendant why he had to do this and the accused was alleged to have replied, "I have done it and you have to keep quiet."

Accused alleged that the witness went into the house and he (accused) only stayed outside.

Dr. H. H. Tai, of the Kowloon Hospital, testified that the cause of death was multiple wounds and haemorrhage.

After evidence, hearing was adjourned to tomorrow morning.

ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

UNEMPLOYED GAOLIE

Pleading guilty to stealing a quantity of clothing, four chisels and a rattan basket, aggregating $30.50, from the first floor of No. 69, Wyndham Street on Feb. 11, Lam Ki, 22, unemployed, was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour by Mr. G.T. Lowry yesterday.

Det.-Sgt. Dewar, prosecuting, stated that the address in question was a house under construction. At about 3.30 p.m. defendant went in, picked up the articles and wrapped them up in one pack. He was arrested while walking away. Defendant had a previous conviction.

CANING FOR SNATCHER

Sentence of 10 strokes of the cane was imposed on Lee Sun, 18, by Mr. Lowry yesterday for stealing from the person of Chan Tai-mul, 24, married woman, one leather handbag containing $1.45 in money, two powder compacts, a purse, a pair of ear-rings, a mirror and a lipstick at Hollywood Road on Feb. 11.

Prosecuting, L/Sgt. H. Goldie said that complainant was walking along the road at 6 p.m., when defendant came up from behind and snatched the bag away. During chase by a detective, he discarded it, but it was later recovered.

GAMBLERS IN COURT

Thirty-three persons were arrested in a raid conducted by the Police on an alleged common gambling house for the purpose of paikau at No. 45, Sai Wan Ho Main Street, ground floor, on Feb. 11.

Brought before Major A.N. Macrae yesterday, Wong Tak, 32, boiler-maker, charged as keeper of the premises, was fined $75.

Of the 32 others, who were charged with gambling, one failed to appear and his bail of $5 was forfeited. Nine detained for failing to raise the bail were fined $2 each, while the rest were each fined $3.

Insp. W.A. Russell prosecuted.

EXCESSIVE PREMIUMS

Ho Yung, of the Hip Yick Money Changers, No. 122, Connaught Road Central, was summoned before Mr. Sheldon yesterday for charging a premium of eight per cent. for the exchange of $1 into 5-cent pieces, being seven per cent. higher than the rate prescribed, which is one per cent. on Jan. 22.

Det. Sub-Inspr. J. O'Donovan stated in the prosecution that the summons was taken out following correspondence from the Treasury. He added that 5-cent pieces were hoarded by some people during the Chinese New Year season for the purpose of profiteering, and that the Police would be satisfied with a small fine.

Mr. H.A. de B. Botelho pleaded guilty on behalf of defendant, and in mitigation, he said that his client purchased the coins at a higher price than that he should have obtained. Defendant was fined $10.

A similar fine was imposed on Chan Sau-leung, of Ming Cheong Money Changers, No. 105, Queen's Road Central, for charging a premium of five per cent. on Jan. 20. Pleading guilty through a representative, Wu Yau-shing, of Hung Hing Money Changers, No. 4, Des Voeux Road West, summoned for charging a premium of ten per cent., was fined $20.

WOMAN FINED

Ip So, 28, married woman, of No. 33, Ship Street, ground floor, custodian of a seven-year-old registered ward, Chung Kwai-ling, was fined $5 by Mr. H. G. Sheldon yesterday for failing to make a report of a change of address.

Insp. H. W. Fraser of the S.C.A. prosecuted.

FAULTY SCALE

Yu Chiu, master of Fruit Stall No. 17 at No. 17, Wing Fung Street, was fined $5 by Mr. Sheldon yesterday for having in possession for use a false or unjust Chinese scale, being four per cent. against the purchaser.

Det.-Sgt. C. Dowman, prosecuting, said that both accused were employed by the Kuen Sang Contractors, Tam Kung Road. Between Feb. 1 and 8, in the absence of their master, accused moved out from the godown 12 bags of cement, valued at $72. The cement was not recovered.

DEATH INQUIRY

An inquiry into the death of Ngan Ping, 29, wife of P. C. C. 301 Kam Lun-cheong, was conducted by Mr. K. M. A. Barnett yesterday before a jury comprising Messrs. A. R. M. Samy (Foreman), V. de G. M. Xavier and Tsai Yat-hang.

Inspector Nolloth said that about 9 a.m. on Jan. 19 the detective, his wife and his young brother were having breakfast in the house. The wife asked him for some money to pass the Chinese New Year but the husband replied that he had no money. Then a quarrel started and the deceased became very angry. About 9.30 a.m. the detective went out to work, leaving only his young brother and wife at home.

The deceased went to bed soon after the departure of her husband. The husband returned about 7 p.m. on the same day and found his wife lying on the bed and vomiting. A tin, which contained some caustic soda, was found on a table next to the bed. He immediately summoned an ambulance and deceased was taken to the Kowloon Hospital where she died the same day.

After further evidence a verdict of death by caustic soda poisoning, self-administered, was returned.

Inspector G.W. Moreton of the S.C.A., prosecuting, said that on Oct. 9 the girl was taken to defendant by a woman and sold for $90. Accused was alleged to have told the girl that she was bought for the purpose of prostitution.

Previous to this the girl was placed under the care of her sister in Canton. On Feb. 7, her father received a letter from the elder sister informing him that

DOUBLE-DECK BUSES FOR H.K. SOON

The China Motorbus Company have received cable advice that the first two of the 30 Daimler chassis ordered for double-decker buses a year ago will be shipped within the next three months, and it is expected the balance will arrive, two at a time, at monthly intervals.

Mr. Ngan Shing-kwan, General Manager of the Company, gave out this information yesterday when he disclosed that the Company's $1,000,000 scheme for running 60-passenger double-decker buses on the lower level routes in Hongkong would thus be further delayed another one-and-a-half or two years.

The original scheme had been to get the chassis equipped with all-metal bodies, from England at a cost of $1,725 per chassis and $1,000 for the body. It was later decided to import the chassis only and build the bodies in Hongkong. If the two chassis due to be shipped in May arrive here before August, the first double-decker bus should be in service by the beginning of September.

Six Men Charged At D. O. South

Committal proceedings were begun before Mr. S. F. Balfour, at the District Office South, yesterday, against Tsang Shing, Leung Kau, Chan Chong-nin, Chan Suk-kwan, Wong Kan and Cheung Hee, who were charged with robbery by two or more and receiving stolen property.

Det.-Sgt. A. F. Estall prosecuted, while Mr. H. A. de Barros Botelho appeared for the third defendant.

Det.-Sgt. Estall stated that junk No. 72554H was chartered by Kwok Wing, fisherman, on Jan. 16 for the transport of goods to Tai Ho, near the north shore of Lantau Islands.

Sailing from Shamshuipo at 4 p.m., the craft arrived off the East Brothers Island at 6 o'clock where she was halted by a small boat approaching from the shore.

Six men then boarded the trading junk and, the Crown alleged, robbed Tsang Kwong, the owner of the junk, and two others on board, of $98.80 in Hongkong currency, various articles of clothing, merchandise, and other property. The defendants were arrested. Further hearing was adjourned to 2.30 p.m. today.

An appliance of the Hongkong Fire Brigade was rushed to an address in Peel Street about nine o'clock yesterday morning in response to an alarm, but the firemen failed to find a fire. It was discovered the alarm was a false one, the signal wires being out of order.

THE DEFENCE OF DEMOCRACY

A MIDST the mounting tension of an approaching climax in the present hostilities and the indications that the desperate circumstances in which the Axis partners in Europe now find themselves may compel them to spread the conflict to the Pacific through their Far Eastern duple, comes news of even a greater climax in the steps being taken in defence of democracy. The question of American aid to Britain and her allies is no longer an issue of a choice between rendering extraordinary aid to the British people and conserving the resources of United States for the defence of America alone. Any lingering feelings of doubt on this vital subject have now been completely dispelled by the honest and unhesitating evidence, which Mr. Wendell Willkie, the Republican champion, has given before the Senate Foreign Affairs Committee on the manner and method in which he considered Britain's present needs in defence of true liberty and the rights of humanity should be met by the United States.

EVEN BEFORE Mr. Willkie gave his testimony on Tuesday, proof was not lacking how completely American opinion, in its new approach to world problems, was swayed by the realisation that Britain and her allies were fighting a battle of life and death for those very principles which Americans hold so dear. The words which Mr. Winston Churchill addressed to the world in general on Sunday night made even America's most ardent isolationists understand the full significance of what they owe to Britain for her resistance to totalitarian aggression and showed them how lame and unreasonable was the attitude they had adopted in attempting to protest against committing their country to such a wide scale of assistance, as is now envisaged, to their sister democracy across the Atlantic. It was a clever diplomatic move on the British Prime Minister's part to have delivered his striking message almost on the eve of Mr. Willkie's appearance before the Senate Committee—evidence which has now made the final decision of aiding Britain certain.

THE MODIFICATIONS which Mr. Willkie suggested before making the now famous "Lend-Lease" Bill law are insignificant. The restriction of the aid to be given to Britain, Greece and China only speak eloquently of the high value and profound admiration which Mr. Willkie and the American people have for the three outstanding proponents of democratic life. No one today can deny how invaluable to the British cause is the unrelenting and undaunted resistance which the Chinese people have been offering the Eastern aggressor and the brilliant and gallant manner in which the Greeks have not only resisted the Italians, but also assisted in

Collected Over $12,000 For Medical Relief

TEA RECEPTION IN HONOUR OF THE REVEREND LELAND WANG

A tea reception in honour of the REV. LELAND WANG, who recently returned from the United States after a two years' around the world missionary tour, was given yesterday by the Hongkong International Medical Relief Committee at the Chinese Merchants' Club.

Dr. Wang, in his tour of the United States and Europe, was instrumental in collecting over $12,000 towards the Committee's medical relief fund. He left China shortly after the Japanese invasion in the North and was in Glasgow at the declaration of war against Germany.

Present at the reception were Dr. Arthur W. Woo, who presided and introduced the guest of honour, Dr. C. T. Wang, President of the Chinese Red Cross, Hon. Sir Robert Kotewall, Madame Sun Fo, Mr. and Mrs. Lambert Dunbar, Lt.-Col. H. L. Morrow, Mr. William Yinson Lee, Prof. and Mrs. Hsu T. Shan, Mr. M. F. Key, Dr. F. I. Tseung, Mr. Lam Chi-fung, J. H. Montgomery, Mr. S. K. Lee and many other guests.

Recounting his experiences on his tour of the United States and Europe, the Rev. Leland Wang said that when he arrived in San Francisco he had not before him any prearranged itinerary of speaking or preaching engagements, and one of the very first steps he took was to obtain a map of the United States from one of the road-side Gas Stations.

CHINA'S GREAT NEED
He had come to tell the people of the United States of China's great need for assistance from all right-minded people. He had come to ask for medical aid for China, for donations toward war relief, for spiritual aid, for aid in the missionary field. He had great trust in his mission, and was sure it would not fail.

Before long, he had received an invitation to come to Omaha, Nebraska to attend a convention on missionary work that lasted a week. Invitations came from Chicago, from Buffalo, from Toronto, in Chicago he made his first radio address, speaking over Uncle John's Radio Station.

During his two years and four months in England and America their now complete demoralisation. The other modification Mr. Willkie suggested was the purely domestic one of limiting the powers under the bill—an amendment which would not affect the Congress giving its assent to any step which the President might desire to make to implement assistance to Britain.

FAR GREATER in importance to these negligible modifications was Mr. Willkie's declaration that by adopting the bill the United States would not be working for Britain, but with Britain in the cause of freedom. To work with Britain it was, therefore, necessary to keep her immediate and long-term needs well supplied. What those immediate and long-term needs are Mr. Willkie specified as Britain's urgent requirements of ships, planes and munitions. The destruction of Britain's merchant shipping was in Mr. Willkie's view a great hazard to her war effort and he went so far as to urge that the United States should keep the British Navy supplied with five to ten destroyers monthly in order to combat the German attempts to cripple Britain's economic position by intensified attacks on her shipping. Mr. Willkie's stand on this whole issue has made one fact more apparent than it has been before—and that is that the American people today stand united in their determination to help those who are helping them, to preserve their national existence—the strength of such a united nation cannot be lightly disregarded and with this conviction and assurance, Britain and her allies await the approaching climax.

he spoke no less than 1,004 times in churches, in schools, and over the radio. He sought to stimulate interest in missionary and in relief work in the Far East, and he enjoyed gratifying response. He found access to the Open Door of American sympathy.

WENT TO EUROPE

In April, 1939, he went to Europe. He attended the annual convention of the China Inland Mission at Westminster Hall, in Paris, he spoke almost a week in a theatre daily to Russian audiences. The meetings were attended also by members of the Chinese Legation in Paris, and the picture of Christian Fellowship created by the number of different nationalities represented at these meetings was a wonderful inspiration.

He travelled to Italy, on vacation, but had opportunity there also to address meetings in Rome and in Florence. In Switzerland he attended a conference of Missionary Societies at Thun, and visited Geneva. From there he travelled to Belfast and to Oslo, Norway, where he was fortunate to have been before the German invasion. He spoke there nightly to audiences of 800 people. A former Swedish missionary in China acted as interpreter.

MEETINGS CANCELLED

On Sept. 3, he was in Glasgow. A series of meetings had been arranged for him to address in Edinburgh and Aberdeen, but these had to be cancelled with the coming of nights of black-out. He received an invitation from an English lady in Birmingham to visit that city and on his visit spoke with and converted to the Christian faith eight German Jewish refugees.

He crossed the Atlantic to New York, and travelled on a preaching tour to Boston and down the Atlantic Coast to Miami, Florida, and from there across the Continent. The response of his pleas for aid to China was very encouraging.

Americans asked him—What will be the outcome of the war in China. He replied, "America holds the answer to that question in her hand, America arms Japan." His audiences protested. "They were all for China. They did not support this sale of American arms to Japan. He agreed: 'Those who sell these war materials to be used against China won't be at these meetings anyway.'"

Dr. Wang is leaving this morning for British Malaya. He will visit Batavia, Sourabaya and Macassar, and hopes to be back in Hongkong by June.

WAITING ON EVENTS:

M.P.-Journalist Discusses Latest Developments In Diplomatic Situation

"If the Japanese Government means business, the most conclusive evidence will be the signature of an agreement with Russia and a settlement between Indo-China and Thailand, which will increase Japanese influence in those countries," said MR. VERNON BARTLETT, M.P., when he discussed the latest developments in the diplomatic situation in the course of a broadcast from London.

In his opening remarks, Mr. Bartlett dealt with the latest successes of the British forces in Africa.

OUTDISTANCED

"Those who do me the honour of listening to these talks may remember that when our troops first broke through into Libya, I emphasised that the campaign would not be likely to lead to the capture of the whole of Libya," said Mr. Bartlett. "The whole country is a vast desert and it is along the coast road which flanks this vast desert that the Italian troops are now struggling back to Tripolitania while being harassed from the air and sea. Not an army, but a rabble will arrive at the other end."

"It is too soon to talk about loss of morale, etc., and it is not my business to speculate. But what I do want to say is that I have been quite fantastically outdistanced."

"If Eastern Libya is ever to be overrun by Italian troops again, it can only be by some overwhelming disaster to Britain in some other theatre of war."

GERMAN PARTICIPATION

Mr. Bartlett referred to the report that German troops were being trained for an African campaign. These troops, he said, had been inoculated against malaria, small-pox and cholera and had been the victims of experiments for special fighting. Wherever these special troops were meant to be used, it was clear that they would not be welcomed in eastern Libya where the population had been cheering the British forces and yelling out phrases in favour of democracy.

Mr. Bartlett quoted a passage from a speech made by Signor Mussolini on Sept. 30, 1911, in which he said: "I declare myself against a Libyan expedition for geographical and economic reasons, because it may seriously threaten the nation."

Mr. Bartlett, here emphasised that, when he spoke of British troops, he did not mean troops from Britain alone. "Don't, for heaven's sake, think that we in Britain underestimated in any way the show which has been put up in this most successful campaign by men from the Dominions and India," he declared.

CAMPAIGN IN ERITREA

Mr. Bartlett then went on to talk of the progress of the campaign in Eritrea, which he said was Italy's oldest colony and a colony of which Italy had the best reasons to be proud.

"The Italian people will find it difficult to forgive Signor Mussolini if his vanity results in his being compelled to lose that territory as well," said Mr. Bartlett. "In Eritrea, however, the Italians have easier country to defend and the British are now faced with what looks like a brick wall of terrific height."

"Italian reinforcements are reported to have arrived there, and if the British are successful they would be on their way to the Red Sea. From Asmara the railway zig-zags down to Massawa and now the British have taken the offensive along the north coast of the Red Sea."

"As if these troubles are not enough for Signor Mussolini," continued Mr. Bartlett, "the British Fleet has added to them, by shelling Genoa. The Italian Navy was again conspicuous by its absence."

VICTORY DEVELOPMENTS

Turning to developments in France, Mr. Bartlett referred to Admiral Darlan's appointment as second in command to Marshal Petain and said: "It is not much use speculating on what M. Laval will do now. It is certain that Marshal Petain was only prepared to offer M. Laval a post, which the latter did not think was good enough for him."

"The way in which the Germans have been backing M. Laval up shows how much they wish him to run the Vichy Government. He represents their one hope of gaining hold of the French Fleet and French colonies by methods of treachery."

"Herr Hitler's need is a pretty urgent one and that is why our Prime Minister spoke with such confidence."

Mr. Bartlett next dealt with the manner in which these events were connected. "It looks as if we might be very near to zero hour in the Balkans," he said.

THE FAR EAST

Referring to the Far East, Mr. Bartlett declared that it also looked as if Japan was expected to cause trouble in that part of the world. "Japan," he said, "would first have to reach some agreement with the Soviet. It is fairly important that they should do so with China too."

"As you know, for some months now Japan's pressure against China has been somewhat relaxed. The Japanese are now mediating between Indo-China and Thai and naval bases there would be of great service to them if they want to attack Singapore and the Netherlands East Indies."

Mr. Bartlett added that Mr. Matsuo had recently been speaking of closer relations with the Axis Powers and the Germans are suggesting that Soviet is likely to break off with China because Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek has dispersed the Communist army.

MR. WILLKIE, ON AID TO BRITAIN, ADVOCATES A MONTHLY QUOTA OF DESTROYERS

Bomb Havoc Described As "Piteous, Heart-Rending"

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Britain, needed both immediate and long-term assistance and the only way the United States could help Britain quickly was to enact the Aid to Britain Bill "with modifications," declared Mr. Wendell Willkie, giving evidence before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

As an example of immediate aid, Mr. Willkie said that the United States should provide Britain with from five to ten destroyers a month. "We should be able to do this directly and swiftly rather than through the rigmorle of dubious legalistic interpretations."

"Incidentally, if we are to make more destroyers available to Britain, we should reconsider them in this country in our own yards," Mr. Willkie advocated that the proposed aid should be limited to the British Commonwealth, China and Greece.

He gave it as his belief that the policy of isolation would eventually destroy the civil liberties of the United States and cause an economic upheaval.

AIR SUPERIORITY

Britain, he added, would require some time even with American planes to obtain superiority in the air.

"Britain may go down if United States aid is ineffective," declared Mr. Willkie, who approved of a time limit on the presidential powers imposed by the House of Representatives' amendment.

All modifications in his opinion should seek to limit the granting of any unnecessary authority by the Bill.

ALLIED EXODUS FROM RUMANIA

BRITISH MINISTER LEAVING SATURDAY

BUCHAREST, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Sir Reginald Hoare, British Minister in Bucharest, and members of the Legation and Consular Staffs are preparing to leave Rumania by a special steamer on Saturday.

It is understood that the personnel of certain Allied missions will leave with them, the party consisting of about 50 British and 40 Allied officials as well as some 50 British civilians.

Reports that the Turkish and Greek Legations are preparing to leave are denied.

The rupture of diplomatic relations with Great Britain has not been mentioned either in the press or on the wireless but news has spread among the public and, following rapidly on the instructions to observe a general blackout, has induced the atmosphere of tension and anxiety.

ROMANIAN MISSION

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Reuter's Diplomatic correspondent learns the Rumanian Legation in London has now received instructions to ask for its passports and the Charge d'Affaires yesterday afternoon called at the Foreign Office to make the formal application.

Nothing definite has yet been arranged in regard to the date of the Mission's departure.

BLACK-OUT ORDERED

ZURICH, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Black-out has been ordered in all big towns in Rumania and also in the oilfields, states a Bucharest despatch to the newspaper Neue Zürcher Zeitung.

More Raid Shelters For Chungking

CHUNGKING, Feb. 12 (Central).—The Executive Yuan yesterday approved of the additional appropriation of $1,000,000 recommended by the Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry as subsidies to different provinces for the promotion of agriculture and forestry.

A petition submitted jointly by the National Relief Commission and the Chungking Air Defence Headquarters for an additional appropriation for air raid shelters was also approved.

PRES. ROOSEVELT RELIEVES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—At a press conference yesterday President Roosevelt answered a question which had been in many minds for months when he stated very deliberately that if the United States was forced into war in the Far East it would have no effect on deliveries of war materials to Britain.

UNKNOWN HEROES IN LIBYA

LORRY AND TRUCK DRIVERS

Lorry and truck drivers, many of them London bus drivers, and also long distance lorry drivers from the Midlands, North England, and Scotland, are the unknown heroes in the successful operations in Libya, states a London message.

Warm tribute was paid by officers to these drivers who brought up petrol and other supplies right on the dot. Driving night and day by cover, these drivers knew that if they lost their way they would jeopardise the battle at issue.

A correspondent, quoted in the London message, said that in the Libyan operations a great part was played by the armoured brigade manned by men from all over the Dominions.

One man who in peace time is a painter in Gateshead said that it was a nice change to plaster and decorate the Italians. (Special)

Japan's Strong Warning To United States

dream of a simultaneous massed onslaught all round the world for such grandiose conceptions are beyond human power to realise.

"The misfortune is that Japanese leaders still seem willing to allow themselves to be used as the catpaws, disregarding the fate of the other countries which hitched their wagons to the German star.

"Doubtless some of them believe the present is a rare opportunity to snatch territory from nations heavily engaged elsewhere. Other countries have thought the same but the idea brought them no luck. It is easy to see how Japan may try to serve Germany but it is not so easy to see how Germany can help Japan."

WATCHFUL EYE

THE DAILY MAIL, in stressing the need to keep a watchful eye on the Far East, refers to Mr. Curtin's remark that the people must not believe the number of our enemies was limited.

He mentioned no names, says the Daily Mail, but he meant Japan.

"Hitler is reportedly using all influence to bring Japan into war against the United States. From his viewpoint, her intervention would be invaluable. Hitler would have everything to gain but what profit could Japan be expected to derive."

"From one angle the prospect is not unattractive. Japan has always pursued an opportunist policy in exploiting the difficulties of other countries.

Britain warring to the death with Germany would seem to provide the right moment for installing a new order in Asia. "Japan has secured a strong position in French Indo-China. Her position as 'arbitrator' in the Thailand-Indo-China dispute may yield her yet more bases for threatening Singapore and the Dutch Indies.

WAR OF MANOEUVRE

"Certainly if Japan intends to strike, she is making good use of a war of manoeuvre.

"Yet we must be prepared for storms in the East. The temper wherein the Empire confronts the threat was well expressed yesterday by the Australian Labour Leader, Mr. Curtin, when in pronouncing the Berlin-Rome-Tokyo Axis as no mere phase, he declared: 'We must play our part to the full.'"

"Feeling in the United States declared itself most plainly against any yielding to the truculence of Japan. With the best of the Japanese Army and material held in

British Successes Continue In Africa

British successes in Africa continue, states a London message.

The latest communique from Cairo reads as follows:—

LIBYA—Nothing of importance to report.

ERITREA—Our forces operating from the north have occupied El Agelha.

ABYSSINIA—Advance continuing and operations are developing well.

Further south our forces have penetrated deeper into enemy territory and 80 guns have been captured.

OTHER FRONTS—No change in the situation.

UNSERVICEABLE PLANES

The latest R.A.F. communique from Cairo states that 80 unserviceable aircraft were found on the ground at the aerodrome at Benina. These included one Heinkel and one Junkers 88. Benina was one of the targets bombed by British aircraft on Tuesday. (Special)

BULGARIAN RAIL DISASTER

Oil Consignment For Reich Destroyed

BELGRADE, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—Eight people were killed and many injured when a train, including 40 oil-tank cars destined for Germany, derailed at mid-night near the Bulgarian frontier station of Dragoman, about half a mile from the Yugoslav frontier.

An authoritative statement says the train was taking the gradient at too high a speed.

Fires broke out causing heavy damage to the train and the line, a large section of which was destroyed.

Traffic is temporarily suspended.

Coming Challenge To Pacific

In Australia there has been a good deal of interest in connexion with a speech delivered by Sir SHENTON THOMAS, Governor of the Straits Settlements and High Commissioner of the F.M.S., at a meeting of the Federal Council, states a message from Sydney.

Sir Shenton said: "Before I speak to you again, another battle may have begun which may decide our fate in this country. I do not know how far we will be involved, but we must stand shoulder to shoulder until we achieve victory."

"There had been a disposition in Australia to regard this speech as an indication of a coming challenge to the Pacific, declares the Sydney message, but in Australia there is a determination to act to the utmost in the defence of Britain and the Empire. Any move which Hitler might make will act as an incentive to Australia's efforts. (Special)

Bremen Has 55th Raid

HANOVER AGAIN VISITED

Machines of the Bomber and Fighter Commands carried out extensive operations over NORTH-WEST GERMANY, HOLLAND, NORWAY, and DENMARK, states a London message.

The main objective was industrial targets at Bremen which had its 55th raid.

Hanover was bombed for the second night in succession and felt the force of the R.A.F. policy of successive night raids.

"It was adding fuel to the flames which were kindled on the previous night," was the description given by one pilot.

Compulsory Evacuation For Eire

Mr. De Valera, the Eire Prime Minister, stated, according to a London message, that if Eire was attacked they could not allow women and children to be exposed to danger. Once bombs began to fall it would be too late.

Eire will introduce compulsory evacuation if necessary, and the Government hoped many parents had already made their own arrangements.

A scheme for the registration of children had been started in schools in Dublin. (Special)

Demand By Matsuoka Rejected By French Delegation

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—The French delegation taking part in peace talks with Thailand in Tokyo is reported to have rejected the demand by Mr. Matsuoka, Japanese Foreign Minister, to acknowledge officially "Japan's dominating position in Asia, whereby she is the only power qualified to assure and maintain order in the countries in this part of the world."

The French were willing to acknowledge in principle "Japan's special position in Asia" after the conclusion of an "honourable" peace with Thailand but they refused to undertake to "give Japan all facilities" in view of possible action in Southern Asia whether against the Netherlands Indies or British possessions.

SUMITA IN BANGKOK

BANGKOK, Feb. 12 (Reuter).—The complete absence of news from Tokyo in the last three days regarding the progress of Japanese mediation in Franco-Thai peace parleys, followed by a fortnight extension of the armistice from today, coincided with Major-General Sumita's arrival in Bangkok from Saigon.

The apparently important mission led speculation in political quarters regarding developments in the immediate future.

WORLD'S OLDEST GOLD MINE

The oldest and deepest gold mine in the world, the John Del Rey mine in Brazil, is about to be equipped with the most complete ore processing plant yet set up, now on its way from England across the Atlantic.

The engineer in charge of the mine will be able, when the plant has been installed, to sit in his office and control all the chemical processes needed to extract the gold from the crushed ore.

The plant measures out the quantity of chemicals required to deal with each batch of mud. When necessary it allows the proportions to be varied, and it also controls the specific gravity of the mixture.

The complete installation is automatic, and its control of the process is correct to a degree. The object of the plant is to economise to the full the quantity of chemicals used and so to reduce the costs of production to the lowest possible point.

SOCCER REVIEW

All in all, Sing Tao had only themselves to blame for losing for had the forwards taken all the openings and shown better shooting they might have scored. On the other hand, Kowloon also had a good chance of taking full points but many good centres from the wings went begging due to inability of the inside men.

SPIRITED RESISTANCE

The unexpected spirited resistance put up by St. Joseph's against South China nearly caused yet another surprise. As it were the latter just scraped through by the odd goal in three.

A feature of the game was the number of penalties awarded. Each side were awarded two but each scored only once from the "spot." The Saints were the first to settle down and in the first half were constantly on the attack. At this stage their defence was playing a grand game, spoiling and distributing well. The Chinese attack could not find their true form and only the steady defence work of Tsang Chung-wan and Lee Kwok-wai prevented the Saints from gaining an advantage.

Bowen, Saints' left-back, was prominent in the defence, revealing glimpses of his form of several seasons back. Tsang, in goal, was also on magnificent form, his fine anticipation enabling to save a penalty from Lee Wai-long. In the middle the Saints more than held their own; Leonard's policing of Lee had the effect of putting the latter out of his stride. In attack the Saints seldom played better. Santos and Cruz, on the right, were the main source of worry to the Chinese defence.

South China's attack did not produce their best form until the second half when, with their machine-like movements, they pierced the Saints' defence more frequently.

MADE NO MISTAKE

As the result of Sing Tao being held to a draw, which brought them back to the championship race, Eastern made no mistake in defeating Navy by two clear goals. As the teams now stand a play-off for the runners-up is probable between the above-mentioned clubs.

With a strong wind blowing good football was impossible and, as a result, first-class soccer was only seen in patches. Navy were unfortunate enough to have to face the wind in the first half but did very well indeed to hold the strong Chinese attack to only a goal lead.

That the Senior Service have found a very able substitute for Robinson was evident by the performance of Giff. He showed fine anticipation and was cool under pressure. The Navy forwards worked hard but found the Chinese defence just that shade stronger.

Macao Play Inspired Football

4-3 WIN OVER S. CHINA

Playing inspired football, the MACAO football team yesterday defeated SOUTH CHINA by the odd goal in seven.

The Portuguese made two changes in their team that lost to Eastern on Tuesday, Sousa, at left-half, taking over the inside-left berth and Mendes substituted in the former's position.

The game opened with South China attacking and were soon two goals up, scored by CHIU WING-KEUNG and CHIN CHI-FAI.

The second half saw a definite change in the Portuguese team and within two minutes from the kick-off, CHONG HAN-KWONG reduced the deficit with a beautiful header. Soon after, GUERREIRO obtained the equaliser.

TERRIFIC SHOT

Macao went ahead, when BARRACCO scored from a melee, and IP PO-TOU made sure of the game with a terrific shot from the left-wing.

As the result of a corner, LEE SHEK-YAU scored for South China. For the winners, Cordova played a brilliant game at full-back. Airoso worked very hard at centre-half. The forwards all played well, especially Ip Po-tou.

The losers were best served by Tse Kam-hung, at back, and Lee Shek-yau, centre-forward.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter) —

On the Stock Exchange yesterday apart from the continued firmness of India stocks, mostly listless conditions prevailed with Balkan uncertainties stifling buying interest.
Gilt-edged securities were steady but home rails, industrials and oils were dull.
Among foreign bonds, Belgian four per cent. advanced from 64 to 66, which is now 50 per cent. above the figure at the end of the year, but the Greeks receded a trifle.
Wall Street was easy.

PROGRESS OF C.I.C. MOVEMENT IN KANSU

As a result of promotion efforts, the Chinese Industrial Co-operative Movement is making rapid progress in Kansu Province.

During the past year, 20 more co-operative factories were established, capable of turning out a monthly output valued at over $400,000.

A large order for 200,000 army blankets is now being filled by the spinning and weaving co-operatives in the province. Some 10,000 woman workers in more than 200 villages are working on the order, with a daily output of 1,000 pieces.

In order to prepare for the industrialization of all villages in the Northwest, the Lanchow Office of the C. I. C. is planning to set up a branch in Ninghsia and Chinghsia respectively. — (Central News)

BETTER MARKETING

With a view to further developing the co-operative enterprises in Anhwei and facilitating the transportation and distribution of the output of co-operative factories, the Provincial Department of Reconstruction has decided to establish a Co-operatives Output Marketing Agency here and Marketing Stations in the leading cities of the province. — (Central News)

Present at the party were M. Guy de Quoniam Schompres, General de Gaulle's special representative in the Far East, M. Villequet, leader of the Free French Legion in Manila, M. Foulard, newly-appointed leader of the Legion in Hongkong, M. Grivaux, M. Strauss, M. Morant, M. Vetch and about 10 others.

CHINA CURRENCIES AND COMMONS

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuter) — In the House of Commons yesterday, Sir John Wardlaw-Milne invited a statement on the implications to trade of the four conflicting currencies in Shanghai and the Yangtse basin.

Mr. R. A. Butler, Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, replied that it was too early to forecast the effect which the Nanking Reserve Bank notes will have on trade and currency, but said that every attempt to supplant the national currency of China cannot but do further harm to the interests of all countries trading with China.

Kiangsi Commercial Bank Starts Mar. 1

Sponsored by a group of leading Kiangsi merchants headed by Mr. Yu Chien-cheng and capitalized at $5,000,000, the Kiangsi Provincial Commercial Bank is scheduled to be opened here on Mar. 1.

An entirely commercial enterprise, the bank, besides undertaking all ordinary banking transactions, will be particularly interested in facilitating intra-provincial and inter-provincial remittances and promoting the commercial and industrial development of the province. — (Central News)

HARBOUR LIGHTING DURING BLACK-OUT

External lights of every description on board vessels will be prohibited and all internal lights must either be extinguished or obscured so that no light is visible either from above or any other direction, states a Harbour Office notice issued yesterday in regard to the black-out; exercises to be held on the nights of Feb. 26-27 and 27-28.

Torches may be used to meet any special circumstance, but they must be screened with two thicknesses of ordinary blue close-woven cloth or paint.

Normal lighting will be restored on the night of March 1-2.

The port will be closed to all inward and outward shipping at sunset on Feb. 26 to sunrise on Feb. 27, from sunset on Feb. 27 to sunrise on Feb. 28 and from sunset on Feb. 28 to sunrise on March 1. During these periods no movements of vessels will be permitted inside the port.

WAR WORKING UP TO A NEW CLIMAX: MORE INTENSIVE & EXTENSIVE

"All the news, some of it dramatic news, which you have just heard points to one fact—this war is working up to a new climax," said MR. CYRIL LAKIN, B.B.C. commentator, when he broadcast from London yesterday.

"It has become not only more intensive, but more extensive. In the last few days—indeed, in the last few months—it is we who are doing all the attacking and in the last day or two particularly, Herr Hitler as well as Signor Mussolini have felt the lash of British sea and air power."

NO RESPITE

Mr. Lakin said that there had been no respite given to Signor Mussolini's crumbling Empire and by day and night the British air forces were over North-West Germany. The British Navy had poured 300 tons of shells into Genoa on Sunday and again on Tuesday had shared in activities to smash Herr Hitler's plans.

"This will seriously affect the ports to be used as places for embarkation and his submarine bases," continued, Mr. Lakin.

"Herr Hitler has already warned us that the time is approaching for an intensive submarine war. It is true that our aircraft have been bombing these submarine bases by day, but for destruction there can be nothing to compare with a naval bombardment."

GENOA—ROCKED & WRECKED

Mr. Lakin went on to declare that the details of the bombardment of Genoa showed how the port had first been rocked and then wrecked by the naval shells.

"Such is the effectiveness of British air-power and mastery of the sea and the vulnerability of the Axis along an extended coast line," he said. "And yet Herr Hitler seems bent on stringing out his line still wider. Perhaps he has no alternative."

THE BALKANS

Messages from the Hungarian capital say that German transport planes flew over Budapest yesterday in the direction of Rumania in three or four formations and the planes were identified as the machines the Nazis used to carry parachute troops on the Western Front.

"The infiltration of Bulgaria by the Germans is going on faster than ever. Despite past mistakes, Bulgaria seems to be falling into the same error as she did in 1903 and 1914. Perhaps she will even now pay attention to the warning issued by Turkey that there would be no pity for her if she bowed to the Nazis."

Mr. Lakin declared that Turkey had never indulged in any illusions and had adopted a clear policy based on armed defence against the Nazi invaders and the Turks were ready to act on the slightest hint of an attempt against their national freedom.

"At the same time General Franco has journeyed across France to meet Signor Mussolini," continued Mr. Lakin. "One reason for the visit may be that Signor Mussolini has appealed to Spain for help and it is feasible that the discussion between General Franco and Signor Mussolini might be in order to find means for extricating the Italian forces in North Africa as an alternative to surrender."

THE FAR EAST

"Still another sign comes from the Far East," went on Mr. Lakin. "German intrigue and pressure has been exerted on the Japanese militarists who seem to think that their failure to win one war may be retrieved by becoming involved in another. They are merely the tools of Berlin."

"It is one of Herr Hitler's greatest hopes that he may seduce the Japanese into war against Britain and the United States, Herr Hitler also thinks that this would divert American help from Britain."

"Mr. Roosevelt gave a quick reply to that wishful thinking. He was asked what were his plans if the United States were forced into a war in the Pacific and he answered that in such a case the United States would not have to curtail assistance to Britain."

"The United States is strongly opposed to yielding to any threats from Japan and this too is the attitude of the British Empire. That was made plain by Mr. Curtin, the Australian Labour Leader. He warned that though the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis was not a mere phrase, Australia would play her part to the full."

BRITAIN PREPARED

"We are prepared for storms in the Far East," declared Mr. Lakin. "Mr. Matsukata's recent speeches show where Japanese opinion is turning. The Netherlands East Indies, Indo-China, and Thailand are being used for furthering Japan's ambitions. Japan should, however, realise the mistake that Signor Mussolini has made and Japan must see too that Germany is using her to her own ends."

"It is easy to see how Japan can help Germany at the present time but it is difficult to see how Germany can help Japan if she gets into trouble. With a large part of her men and materials engaged in the war in China, Japan should think a second and third time before she enters such a gamble."

DE GAULLE AND VICHY DISPUTES

Radio Broadcast To Free French Forces

LONDON, Feb. 12 (Reuters) — General de Gaulle, leader of the Free French Forces, broadcasting in French last night, said:

"Intrigues, disputes and changes at Vichy have their terrible consequences because the enemy has a part in them. That is more harmful than equivocation in obedience in Vichy which keeps the French Mediterranean forces away from any action in the full battle of the Mediterranean."

"That is why the Free French are at present redoubling their efforts in order to make up as far as possible for the deficiency on the part of France to help bring about a victory."

"At this very moment our troops supported by our air force, are victoriously engaged in battle in the area of Koufra Oasis in Italian Libya, 600 miles from the frontier of Chad from which they set out."

WATER POLO

A friendly water polo game will be played tomorrow at the Y.M.C.A. bath, commencing at 7.15 p.m., between the European Y.M.C.A. and Middlesex Regiment. The latter's team will be:—Pte. Berry; Sgt. Freshwater, Bds. Hyman; E. S. M. Ure; Pte. Bindon, Pte. Burdge and Pte. Jennings.

BANNERS PRESENTED TO KWANGSI LEADERS

As a token of tribute for their services in expelling the Japanese from their home land, delegates representing 18 recovered districts in southern Kwangsi have presented banners to Gen. Li Chi-sen, Director of the Kwangsi Office of the Military Affairs Council, Gen. Li Tsung-jen, Commander-in-Chief of the Chinese Forces in Central China, Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, Vice-Chief of the Staff, and Gen. Huang Shu-chu, chairman of the Kwangsi Provincial Government.

The presentation was made at the Enlarged Weekly Memorial Service.—(Central News).

THE WEATHER

Maximum temperature yesterday was 75 and the minimum 63. Total rainfall since Jan. 1 is 4.08 inches against an average of 1.90. The Royal Observatory report states:—

The anticyclone remains stationary and unchanged over Manchuria; pressure is relatively low over Indo-China and to the north-east of Hokkaido.

Mr. Lau Fan, of No. 17, Queen's Road Central, reports to the Police that some time on Feb. 8, two of his flocks absconded with $68 worth of cloth.

INTERFERENCE WITH STATUE PLATES

It is learned that no attempt had been made to remove the bronze plate from a Royal statue in Statue Square.

A Chinese constable on patrol, noticing that the screws to the plate of the Prince of Wales statue were loosened, removed them and they were later handed to the Public Works Department.

The plates of two other statues had also been removed owing to the looseness of the screws.

ARMY SNOOKER TOURNAMENT

New Scoring Method Adopted

A meeting of the Garrison Snooker Committee took place at the Soldiers' Club on Monday, Feb. 10, to decide what procedure should be adopted in assessing league points in Garrison Snooker.

It was proposed by S/Sgt. Megson, R.E., that one league point should be allotted to each "frame" won only, the total aggregate to have no bearing on the final result whatsoever, i.e., if both teams won three games each they would be awarded three points each in the League Table.

This proposal was agreed upon by all present and will be incorporated in the relevant rules.

The following are the results of games played recently:—

Thursday, Feb. 6:—R. A. P. C. beat Signals "A" 4-2; R.A.M.C. beat Signals Cpls. 8-0; C.M.P. drew with R.E. "A" 3-3; R.A. Stanley drew with R.E. Sgts. 3-3.
